Highlands Ranch, Colorado

Medi Weightloss, one of the most successful weight loss clinics in the country, has opened a new facility in Highlands Ranch just off C-470 and Broadway. In the first week alone, Medi Weightloss patients lose six to seven pounds on average. Some lose as much as ten to twelve. By the end of the first month, the average weight loss is fourteen to twenty pounds.

Fully equipped with modern medical technology, detailed analysis techniques are used in combination with in-depth patient consultations to define precise, achievable calorie goals. Medi supplies nutritionally balanced meals, bars, shakes, desserts, and more to simplify meal planning. The end result is a completely individualized plan that makes it easy to lose weight and keep it off.

“We completely understand how hard weight loss can be,” says Highlands Ranch Medi owner, Joshua Powell. “All of us, myself included, have gone through the first week of the Medi program. So we know exactly how to support our members every step of the way. We see many people who have struggled with weight loss in the past, even though they tried everything. Then they come here and see real results, quickly. One of the best parts of the job is seeing the joy on their faces when they realize this is really happening. They’re making clear, measurable progress at last.”

The Medi Weightloss brand has been helping people lose weight successfully for over eleven years. Staffed by a professional and friendly nurse practitioner, medical assistant, and nutritionist, the whole team at the new Highlands Ranch location is excited to work alongside new patients as they achieve their weight loss goals.
